The 2014 Chinon La Rougerie offers a floral bouquet with ripe and dried red fruit aromas, but it does not have the concentration of the 2015, 2016 or 2017. It is a rather delicate and elegant Chinon Cabernet with good concentration, tension and grip on the finish. Quite firm and a bit austere but full of character.

Sweetness: Dry

Type: Table

Variety: Cabernet Franc
