The 2015 Chinon La Croix Boissée is pure, fine and floral on the expressive and concentrated yet elegant, very particular and slightly untamed nose that reveals fruity, spicy and fleshy aromas and remarkable depth. Full-bodied, fresh and vital, with lots of energy, mineral tension and very fine tannins, this is a perfectly juicy, dense, very complex and energetic Chinon with a long and tensioned finish. It's another great red wine from Bertrand Sourdais.
