I was surprised to receive a bottle of the 2017 Roselito, which I had already tasted last time, but it was a good opportunity to taste it again and see the evolution and how it compares with the ultra-pale Le Rosé from 2017. This has a pale pink color and developed nose that showed some balsamic and mineral/diesel-like notes. It had settled in bottle, and the palate was polished and balanced. It's very approachable now, but I wouldn't keep it for very long...
