Like the rest of the 2020s, the unbottled cask sample of the 2020 La Mata is pale, floral, elegant and expressive at this early stage. Despite being the most powerful of the single-vineyard bottlings, the wine is very fresh and fluid, with ultra fine tannins and a silky mouthfeel. It has pristine, fresh and vibrant flavors. There's more clay here, but the mother rock is limestone, and it shows.
